

Please, no cell phone use during flights. It is distracting and annoying enough to be forced to listen to conversations of which the greatest portion appears to be mindless babble, nothing of an urgent matter. As it is now, it is painful to have to be subjected to conversations while trying to exit the plane. The quiet is much needed. Thank you. lj